

PLATFORM OF THE Independent Home-Rule PARTY.

Adopted in Island Convention in Honolulu, H. I. June 7, 1900.

PREAMBLE.

"We believe that all governments founded on an independent basis should be assured of freedom without oppression. We believe in equal rights and freedom for all the people.

"We believe man was born with a right to be independent and that every person is equal in the eye of the law. We believe that he is endowed with all the privileges of life, liberty and the right to choose that which will contribute to his best advantage. We believe in protection against suppression. We believe that we should strive to secure equal rights for the people, by the people and of the people.

"Equal rights for the people," is the motto adopted in the platform.

"The belief of the independent party is that the successful candidates in the legislature of the Territory of Hawaii should strive in every way to secure the consent of the congress of the United States to make a state of the Territory of Hawaii and pledge ourselves to support all good and equal provisions that either the republican or democratic parties of the United States may see fit to enact.

"We further pledge ourselves to support that political party in the United States that will work to make Hawaii a state.

"We intend to strive in every way possible to secure from the United States benefits and privileges for the natives and other citizens alike who will work together for the good of the country, regardless of color. We also intend to strive toward the end that our representatives shall formulate the best laws for the people.

"Our legislators should strive to obtain homesteads for the citizens out of the lands that have been taken over by the United States.

"They should also strive to set aside an appropriation for damages by fire, caused by the burning of Chinatown and other places by the board of health in connection with the suppression of bubonic plague in 1900.

"They should further strive to encourage education, industrial pursuits, farming, road making, railroads and both foreign and local commerce that will redound to the advantage of the country.

"We stand opposed to monopolies, to any attempt at a restriction of the voting privileges of natives or citizens who think as they do, that might be attempted later. We stand opposed to the heavy taxation of the people, the restriction of the jury rights of the natives and to all other restriction of the rights of the people.

"We declare that labor, other than by contract, on government work either mechanical or industrial, shall not exceed eight hours a day.

"Labor on government contracts or otherwise, either direct or indirect, shall be performed by citizens of the Territory of Hawaii.

"We shall encourage the importation of labor into the Territory of Hawaii from the citizenship of the United States.

"We pledge ourselves to resist the furtherance of trusts in the Territory of Hawaii.

"We are pledged to earnest and unceasing effort to secure for all those persons imprisoned by the martial law rule of 1895 and by sentence of the military commission of 1895 such financial remuneration as is their just due."

HONOLULU NO LONGER A CHRISTIAN CITY

IT IS OVERRUN BY HEATHEN POPULATION FROM THE ORIENT.

Commendation of the Course of the Republican in Its Fight Against Vice at Iwilei.

[From the Diocesan Magazine.]

The Honolulu Republican deserves the commendation of the whole Christian community for demanding that, if vice cannot be suppressed, at least it shall not flaunt itself abroad, nor its haunts be made attractive.

In dealing with this subject it must be borne in mind that Honolulu is no longer what it once was, a Christian city. Twenty-five years ago nearly the whole population professed Christianity. Today the Christians are outnumbered by a heathen population from the Orient. It is impossible to expect that the high standard of morality demanded by the gospel can be enforced upon those who have not yet accepted the obligations of the Christian covenant. The position of Christians today in Honolulu is not dissimilar to that of the Christian communities in Corinth and Ephesus in St. Paul's day. The solemn language which St. Paul found it necessary to use with regard to sins of the flesh, lest those who had been baptized should fall back into the ways of the heathen, needs to be repeated now. Read what he wrote in his first epistle to the Corinthians, Chap. 6, and to the Ephesians in Chap. 5. The danger arising from the presence of so much evil is lest there should creep over those who profess to be Christians a blindness as to the deadly nature of the sins of impurity, and lest, like Israel of old, they should be "mingled among the heathen and learn their works."

At such a time the standard of morality demanded of all who have been admitted into the Christian covenant needs to be clearly and plainly stated. The following utterance of the bishops assembled at Lambeth in 1888, based on the teaching of holy scripture, should be pondered by all who call themselves by the name of Christ:

"We solemnly declare that a life of purity is alone worthy of being created in the image of God.

"We declare that for Christians the obligation to purity rests upon the sanctity of the body, which is the temple of the Holy Ghost."

"We declare that a life of chastity for the unmarried is not only possible, but is commanded by God.

"We declare that there is no difference between man and woman in the sinfulness of sins of unchastity."

"We declare that on the man, in his God-given strength of manhood, rests the main responsibility.

"We declare that no one known to be living an immoral life ought to be received in Christian society."

"We solemnly protest against all lowering of the sanctity of marriage."

"We would remind all whom our voice may reach that the wrath of God, alike in holy scripture and in the history of the world, has been revealed against the nations which have transgressed the law of purity; and we solemnly record our conviction that wherever marriage is dishonored and sins of the flesh are lightly regarded, the home life will be destroyed, and the nation itself will sooner or later decay and perish."

To which may be added the following lines from George Herbert's Church Porch:

"Beware of lust; it doth pollute and foul
Whom God in baptism washed with his own blood;
It blots the lesson written in thy soul:
The holy lines cannot be understood.
How dare those eyes upon a Bible look,
Much less towards God, whose lust is all their book!"

"Wholly abstain or wed. Thy bounteous Lord
Allows thee choice of paths; take no by-ways,
But gladly welcome what he doth afford;
Not grudging that thy lust hath bounds and stays.
Continence hath its joy; weigh both, and so,
If rottenness have more, let heaven go."

WAR ON PLANT PESTS.

Commissioner of Agriculture Inaugurates Plan for Extermination.

War has been declared against the pests that infest and destroy Hawaiian plant life, and the work towards their complete extermination is to be vigorously pushed. Commissioner of Agriculture Wray Taylor has endeavored to enlist the efforts of the children of the public schools in carrying on the work of extermination of the destructive parasites.

Mr. Taylor has made the attempt to arouse the interests of people living on plantations and in the outside district in propagating such insects as are known to destroy plant pests. The commissioner's plan is to send insects to the teachers in the various districts with the anticipation that they will distribute them among the pupils, and thus the insects will be taken to their homes and the cultivation and effect upon plant pests carefully noted. As the instruction in agriculture combines work in small gardens in the various districts, the propagation of these insects and their work in ridding vegetation of destroying parasites, can be carefully watched and the results communicated to the agricultural commissioner.

Train Robbers in the Western States

Lone Highwayman Robs Pullman
Passengers on Northern Pacific
—Express Car Looted.

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 22.—Single handed, a masked robber held up the westbound passenger train on the Northern Pacific at 1 o'clock this morning and succeeded in getting away with between $400 and $500 in cash, several watches and a quantity of jewelry. The robbery occurred soon after the train left Athol, Idaho, and the lone robber left the train at Rathdrum. After the train left Athol he gained the rear of the second Pullman sleeper and at once began operations, waking up the sleepers and demanding their valuables while covering them with a formidable looking revolver. Cleaning up both Pullmans the robber entered the tourist car. Here he attracted the attention of the conductor, who was in the forward part of the coach. He came down the aisle and the robber backed out the car door and stepped off the platform as the train was pulling into Rathdrum. Drawing his revolver the conductor fired twice at the man who at once turned and fired three shots at the conductor who beat a hasty retreat into the car.

A reward of $2,000 is offered for the robber's capture.

LINCOLN, Sept. 22.—Four masked men held up the express car on the St. Louis-Portland train of the Burlington road early today at the village of Woodlawn, a few miles northwest of Lincoln. The men commanded the express messenger to open the local safe for them. The through safe, which the messenger could not open and which contained a large sum of money, was not molested. The robbers secured a very large sum from the local safe. After going through the safe the men left the express car and disappeared. The Burlington Company has offered a reward of $500 each for the apprehension of the robbers.

FINANCIAL SITUATION TO GO BEFORE CONGRESS

[From a Staff Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—In his annual report to congress next December Secretary of the Treasury Gage will call attention to the fact that the withdrawal of money collected as customs receipts by the government in Hawaii to the United States sub-treasury at San Francisco is causing a scarcity of money in the islands, and will say to congress that the department has no authority under the law to remedy the matter. He will therefore ask congress to enact legislation that will ensure to the islands a sufficient circulating medium.

THE NEW CENTURY TYPEWRITER

The NEW CENTURY TYPEWRITER marks the highest development of that type of ribbon machine which uses a key for a character; its predecessor, the Caligraph, noted for its durability, introduced this popular type, and the same excellence of construction which distinguished the old machine characterizes the new.

A nicely balanced, rigid and responsive mechanism has given the NEW CENTURY an incomparably easy and elastic touch, excellent alignment, and an absence of noise in operation that is at once noticeable.

It does its work with great economy of labor and time.
